Designer of the year Participant's Responsibilities.

Entry form: make sure to hand in to your club treasurer by date specified along with remuneration for awards dinner and demo if you are attending. In case of emergencies please ensure your contact number is on entry form.

Use of own work table: if there is room, participants may use their own work table with prior permission of the DOY committee and must be no bigger than 600x600. A chair will be provided.

Plant material MUST predominate A discrete amount of painted material is allowed in an entry but SHOULD NOT predominate Some components or mechanics of a design may be brought to the Show pre-done but SHOULD NOT form a predominant part of the exhibit

Artificial flowers are not to be used.

All competitors must not use any plant material that is on the Northland Regional Councils banned list or any plant material infected with a bio security warning, e.g. Myrtle Rust, PSA (kiwifruit vine), kauri dieback, or any other material FASNZ has stipulated not to use.

Please ensure you read Flair and familiarise yourself with its content.

Novice and Intermediate entrants who have won first prize in their category may not enter that category again.

On Completion of your design, quietly leave the work area without any chatter, taking your equipment with you. After you have left, you MAY NOT re-enter the competition room and alter your design, i.e. if something falls from your design you CANNOT be contacted to come and fix it.

Assistance: if a designer needs assistance due to a disability the Area Committee to be advised who the helper is and the stewards need to be informed.

Dropsheet: to be brought and used by designers.

Rubbish Bags: bring a rubbish bag and take away your own rubbish. Leave the floor around your design clean and tidy.

Clean Up: When dismantling designs at the end of the show make sure the area around your space is left clean and tidy.

Judging: you can usually ask the Judge about your own design. You may not challenge the Judge. The Judge's decision is final.

Size: always check space allowed and keep within that space.

Photographing of your design: please tick box on entry form if you do not want your design to be photographed.

DESIGNS: Novice viewed from front. Open, Senior and Intermediate to be viewed all around
